Subject line of email: Hi (name), here is the information I promised!

Hi (name),

It was great to speak to you today. I am always looking out for ways to make extra income and I knew that you would want to take a look at this I have discovered an amazing business concept that I think you will find interesting.

It's a company that is UK based, yet has a global reach and global success

It exploits an existing global market of incalculably colossal size — but in the UK alone is estimated at 20 million adults spending £1 BILLION a year!

It has no direct competition — no other company offers this product. In fact, it's unique!

It is indirectly publicised in the media all the time — prime-time TV, radio, press, posters, and Web.

It can be promoted online as well as offline equally well — with a suite of promotional tools, a personalised website with the ability to capture instant credit card sales, 24/7 as well as a business development DVD.

(Name), there is so much more to this so I'm going to send you a couple of emails to give you a chance to make an informed decision as to whether this might be something you'd like to take advantage of.

I really would value your opinion, so just click to confirm in the next email you receive from me with the subject line "The information you requested" and I'll make sure you get all the information you need to make an informed decision.
